

Christmas Lunch - Sunday December 2

Lesley and I arrived in a pleasantly warm Inkberrow Parish Education Centre to be greeted by delicious smells wafting from the kitchen and tables groaning with plates of wonderful food. Pat Parminter had done it again - organised and cooked a splendid Christmas lunch for us, ably assisted by Margaret Gregory - and you'd never get anything so tasty in a restaurant.

Pam Benstead